Training Session Overview

“The Survival Mindset” – Officer Survival and Situational Awareness): Mike Huth, Kansas City, MO PD (4 hours): Law Enforcement has a demanding role which mandates we maintain sharpened skills in many areas. This course incorporates the importance of being prepared in the key areas of mindset, physical fitness, skills/training, and equipment (including technology!). How these affect us both on and off duty will be discussed. Michael Huth is the chief Physical Training and Defensive Tactics Instructor with the Regional Police Academy at the Kansas City, MO Police Department. He began with the Department in 1995 as a Detention Facility Officer and in 1996 graduated the Police Academy as a sworn police officer earning the class Director's Award. Prior to joining the Department, he worked as an armed Security Officer, Firefighter, and EMT. His background includes jiu-jitsu, Close Quarters Combat, and police tactics. He is a Glock Armorer, Cooper Institute Law Enforcement Fitness Specialist, CrossFit Level 1 Certificate holder, Taser Instructor, FLETC certified Driving Instructor, and certified yoga instructor. He serves as President of the National Law Enforcement Training Center, a not-for-profit defensive tactics training organization whose instructors train around the world to police, corrections, security, and military personnel. This presentation is designed to meet the new POST requirements (pending) on Officer Wellness Training.

Securing Houses of Worship (2 hours): Missouri State Highway Patrol: Our speakers will discuss the latest ideas when it comes to securing Houses of Worship

Emerging Drug Trends (2 hours): Missouri State Highway Patrol: Members of the Patrol's Division of Drug and Crime Control will discuss what they have seen as trends in drug use and abuse across the State of Missouri.

Basic Crime Prevention Refresher and Introduction to Crime Prevention Through Environmental Design (CPTED) – (4 hours): Crime Prevention Specialist Sergeant Jonathan McIntosh, Creve Coeur Police Department: Jon will provide a 4 hour block of instruction covering the basics of Crime Prevention and an Introduction to CPTED Principles and Practices. Jon is a recognized expert in this field and has provided several training sessions throughout the state on these topics.

Identifying and Properly Seizing Digital Storage Devices (4 hours): Detective Corporal Ken Nix, Clayton PD: Detective Corporal Ken Nix has served with the Clayton Police Department for 40 years and is currently the Operational Director and Founder of RCCEEG (Regional Computer Crime Education Enforcement Group). Since 2004, he has served on the Board of Directors for National White Color Crime Center (NW3C). He has also been Deputized as a US Marshal and Task Force Officer. Ken is a nationally recognized expert in this area of expertise.

Policing Ferguson, Policing America: What Really Happened and What the Country Can Learn From It (4 hours): Chief (retired) Tom Jackson: In his book, Policing Ferguson, Policing America, Chief Jackson tells for the first time the real Ferguson story while sharing his thoughts about the steps we can take together to improve all Americans' lives, and restore the vital trust between the police and the communities they serve. His well-informed recommendations just may improve this dire situation. Hear from Chief Jackson the real story!
